

Funding the Future

Co-operatives Wales: A new economic narrative for the I...

Published: January 13, 2026, 3:35 pm

I am giving a talk for Cooperatives Wales on Saturday morning as part of their celebration of Robert Owen Day. My talk on a new economic narrative for the left will follow a keynote from Mark Drakeford, the first minister of Wales. The whole agenda is here:

HOSTED BY CO-OPERATIVES
coop
Wales

HOW BIG THINGS GET DONE!

ROBERT OWEN DAY
SATURDAY, 13TH MAY 2023
10.00 AM - 12.30 PM
(ZOOM MEETING OPENS AT 9.40 AM)

Session One
10.00 - 11.10 am

- Key Note Contribution, Mark Drakeford MS, First Minister, Welsh Government
- 'A New Economic Narrative for the Left' with Richard M Murphy, Professor of Accounting Practice, Sheffield University

Chair:
Mick Antoniw MS, Welsh Government Counsel General

Session Two
11.20 am - 12.30 pm

Driving Community Wealth Building - Owen and Co-operation

- 'Owen & His Theory of Community Wealth Building Today?', Liz McIvor, Manager, The Co-operative Heritage Trust
- 'The Power of Community Wealth Building', Sarah Longlands, Chief Executive, Centre for Local Economic Strategy
- 'The trade union role in developing networks & initiatives', Cllr. Laura Smith, Political Consultant, Communications Workers Union
- 'Wales' perspective', Sarah Evans, Commercial Director, Cwmpas
- O&A Panel, Chair: Cllr. Jackie Jones with audience contributions

CONTACT US
DAVID@COOPERATIVES-WALES.COOP

I gather there are a few on-line tickets still available. I will be able to share the video next week.

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/a-new-economic-narrative-for-the-left-robert-owen-day-mark-drakeford-tickets-583866539537>