As the FT notes this morning:

US-led coalition to create safe corridor in Red Sea as ship diversions mount

Naval grouping and shipowners look to bolster security against threat of Iranian-backed rebel attacks

The US can lead nations in seeking to keep open the routes for cheap oil and products from China.

It cannot unite to create safety for the innocent victims of war in Gaza.

And that is all that you need to know about the values of some of the world's supposed leaders.
