

Talking to AccountingWEB

AccountingWEB published this podcast interview with me yesterday.

We talk about the Taxing Wealth Report 2024 in the main, but also about my concerns about the failings of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.

It was a lively interview, with quite a lot of animated comment by me, if I am honest.

I have an affection for AccountingWEB. I was a contributing editor for about a decade.
