This analysis from the Political Compass website on where the UK's leading political parties might be on their electoral map is interesting:

UK Parties 2024 General Election

24 May 2024

I suspect that few will be surprised by this finding. That the Greens and nationalists stand so far away from the leading English parties is unsurprising. It is equally unsurprising that all those English parties are both authoritarian and right-wing.

Only the DUP breaks the mould on this issue.

What else would anyone expect?

The analysis is on their website, here.
