

Funding the Future

With Steve Keen, tomorrow

Published: January 15, 2026, 4:24 pm

People seemed quite interested in a potential discussion between Prof Steve Keen and myself a month or so ago when the possibility was discussed on this blog.

We have not, I admit, made much progress with the idea of doing this in front of a live audience, not least because I have been pretty much overwhelmed with university-linked work in the last month, but we are nonetheless going to have a conversation on Saturday evening.

If you want to join us live, I will be with Steve and his cohosts on their regular weekly discussion programme at 6pm on Saturday, 19th October. The necessary YouTube link to the live event is here. There is also a LinkedIn option here, and there will be a Twitter option on the day - but you have to look out for it on Steve's Twitter profile as the show goes live. There is no charge. There will be an opportunity to ask questions, but it is via a chat system and not by live intervention.

I will post the resulting discussion here sometime early next week.

This is the promo image for what we might be discussing:
