

Formation flying

Published: January 19, 2026, 5:28 pm

Two cranes over Welney this morning:

These are the UK's tallest birds, standing at four feet or 1.25 metres. These two were enjoying a thermal. They do now breed in East Anglia, but not successfully at Welney as yet.