According to the New York Times:

Trump Officials Blame Mistake for Setting Off Confrontation With Harvard

An official on the administration's antisemitism task force told the university that a letter of demands had been sent without authorization.

So, Trump is at war with Harvard by mistake.

Who will he be at war with next, also by mistake?

To use a word he uttered in public, "Oopsy, I just nuked xxxxx" (insert xxxx to suit your own preferences as to who might suffer this misfortune).

Very truly, there is an idiot in the White House, and he is wildly out of control.

People are, and will in ever greater numbers, suffer as a result.
