There are moments when I have to ask whether Trump is mad or bad?

Then I saw his Easter message, which was this:

Donald J. Trump
@realDonaldTrump

Happy Easter to all, including the Radical Left Lunatics who are fighting and scheming so hard to bring Murderers, Drug Lords, Dangerous Prisoners, the Mentally Insane, and well known MS-13 Gang Members and Wife Beaters, back into our Country. Happy Easter also to the WEAK and INEFFECTIVE Judges and Law Enforcement Officials who are allowing this sinister attack on our Nation to continue, an attack so violent that it will never be forgotten! Sleepy Joe Biden purposefully allowed Millions of CRIMINALS to enter our Country, totally unvetted and unchecked, through an Open Borders Policy that will go down in history as the single most calamitous act ever perpetrated upon America. He was, by far, our WORST and most Incompetent President, a man who had absolutely no idea what he was doing -- But to him, and to the person that ran and manipulated the Auto Pen (perhaps our REAL President!), and to all of the people who CHEATED in the 2020 Presidential Election in order to get this highly destructive Moron Elected, I wish you, with great love, sincerity, and affection, a very Happy Easter!!!

The answer to the question is that he is very clearly both.

That message is from a man detached from reality. That is what madness is.

It is also bad on so many levels.

The vindictiveness and hatred of so many people implicit in it is bad.

The language used is most definitely bad because of the sentiments it is trying to create.

As an action of a President, it is beyond bad.

And still, the UK is trying to get a deal with him.

But then, Labour is also rotten to its very core, as I have noted this morning.

This is the lens through which we now have to understand politics. Compassion and sanity have departed the scene. We are left with hatred, self-interest and gleeful cruelty.
