Any suggestions for questions you'd like to be answer...

Thomas and I were talking together about videos yesterday, and what we might make some on.

I had some ideas, but they are all a bit long, and we think we need some shorter ones to create some balance.

So, imagine you could ask a question that I could answer in five minutes or so. What would that be? Suggestions are welcome. We are genuinely looking for ideas.

I offer no guarantee that we will make anything, mind you, but everything will be considered.
