

What is it about Starmer and GB News?

GB News regularly invite me to appear on their programmes. I have always refused. I always tell those who ask that I do not do fascist television.

It seems Starmer has no such qualms. This was on Twitter, about his (ill-fated) visit to Albania:

C4News, "The Prime Minister Keir Starmer, unusually, chose to take only one broadcaster, GB News"

What word would you use to describe a PM who only takes GB News on a trip to another country?

Why did he only take GB News? What the heck was that about?
