

Macron recognises Palestine whilst Starmer prevaricates...

As the FT reports:

President Emmanuel Macron has pledged that France will recognise Palestine as a state at the UN General Assembly in September, becoming the biggest and most influential EU country to do so as pressure grows on Israel to end its offensive in Gaza.

In a letter sent to Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas on Thursday, the French leader lauded promises that Abbas had made in their discussions and said France would make the long-awaited political move in return.

They added:

"In keeping with its historic commitment to a just and lasting peace in the Middle East, I have decided that France will recognise the state of Palestine," Macron wrote in a post on X.

"It is urgent now that the war in Gaza stops and that the aid be brought to the population. Peace is possible."

I have two obvious comments.

First, good, and about time.

Second, where is Starmer on this? Nowhere of course. Still sitting on the fence as people are killed in a genocide.

History is not going to be kind to him.

I rather hope The Hague won't be either. His indecision is criminal.
