

Why, Labour? Why?

The FT has this headline this morning:

UK financial regulation + Add to myFT

UK can 'lead the world' on crypto, says City minister

Britain's new regulatory regime will take effect in the second half of 2027

You don't need to read the article.

You just need to ask the obvious question, which is "Why?"

Why would we want to lead a Ponzi scheme?

Why would we want to lead the charge to undermine the state that made money?

And don't we understand that this stuff only exists to undermine democracy at the end of the day?

Or rather, it exists for that reason and to assist criminality.

So, why would we support those two things?

Why, oh why, oh why?

And as to answers, there are none: not from Labour.
