

Cooperation with the Canary

Starting from today, we are producing video shorts with and for The Canary.

The target is Reform.

The aim is to beat fascism.

About once a week, we will produce a 2-minute video highlighting why Reform's economic policies make no sense and will harm those whom Reform wishes to appeal to the most.

There should be enough material to keep us going for some time.

And if you see those shorts, or our own that we are also now planning to create, please do like and share them. That's the way to get the message out there, and it is a key role you can play.
