The warm up act

---

As I have previously advised, our Cambridge event on 28 February is sold out now, and it looks like we cannot expand capacity, but it is time to admit I have a warm-up gig in Norwich on 26 February:

REIMAGINE ECONOMICS
THE MYSTERIES OF MONEY:
WHY EVERYTHING YOU THINK YOU KNOW ABOUT
GOVERNMENT SPENDING, DEBT AND TAXES IS WRONG

 Richard Murphy
Emeritus Professor at the University of Sheffield, founder of the Tax Justice Network and advocate of Modern Monetary Theory

LECTURE THEATRE 3
UNIVERSITY OF EAST ANGLIA

26 FEBRUARY
6PM

I think tickets for this are free. They are available here.

And, if you are in Edinburgh on 21 March, there is also this:

SCOTLAND'S
FESTIVAL

Bringing BIG economic ideas to Scotland

LEITH 19-21 MARCH 2026

Specifically, I am doing this session:

Tickets for my session can be purchased here, but the whole festival takes place in Edinburgh over the 19th to 21st March and is a unique, public-facing celebration of economic thinking designed to challenge, inform, and inspire. The full programme and tickets can be found here: www.scoteconfest.org. Give it a look, and I look forward to seeing you there, or online, because this event is being streamed.
