

A discussion forum

Published: March 27, 2026, 7:19 am

Comments posted here yesterday suggested that, overall, a discussion forum is likely to be preferred by those who wish to take part in debate on items posted here that will not meet the criteria of the comments policy, a proposed revision of which I have posted today.

I am more than happy to see such a discussion forum created, but neither the team here nor I have the capacity to create or host it, or to moderate it.

As a consequence, the question that naturally arises is whether anyone else is willing to take on leadership of that project? Are there any willing volunteers?

If there is more than one, I will be happy to put you in touch, but please note that I am travelling today and, as a consequence, there may be a delay in doing so.
