

Am I alone in thinking all this?

I listen to, watch or read the news now, and always have the same questions.

- * How much of this is right?
- * What are the biases son display?
- * Why are we being taken for mugs?
- * Do they think we believe them?

Am I alone in thinking all this?

I am aware that truth is a victim of war, but this has become very apparent over the last week and I am fed up with being kept in the dark whilst being fed bullshit.
